FATAL AMYLOD CARDIOMYOPATHY COMPLICATING RELAPSING-REFRACTORY MULTIPLE MYELOMA : 4 CASE REPORT.

MATHIEU, BELLAL; ATCHROUE, JOHNSON ANSAH; ERIC, SALOUX; GANDHI LAURENT, DAMAJ; MARGARET, MACRO

Abstract Body

We report here four patients experiencing acute (type I) cardiorenal syndrome during a multiple myeloma end-stage evolution. The combination of acute nephrotic renal syndrome and heart failure, highly suggested of a stage III (Mayo Clinic Staging) amyloid cardiomyopathy which was documented histologically in 2 out of 4 patients.

This exceptional complication of multi-treated, relapsing-refractory multiple myeloma is rapidly and constantly fatal.