

Pavlo Mazur has earned his Master's degree in genetics from biological faculty of the National Taras Shevchenko University of Kyiv in 2011. Since then, he has occupied in clinical embryology in "Nadiya" Clinic in Kyiv. At the beginning of 2016, he presented a reliable protocol for pronuclear transfer in human. The next year, in January, a woman who had been struggling with infertility for 15 years, has given birth to a healthy baby girl.