

Professor Ibrahim Yakoub-Agha, has been appointed as a Professor of Hematology and head of Hematopoietic Stem Cell Transplantation Unit at Lille University Hospital.

He has published several scientific articles related to the field of Allogeneic Hematopoietic Cell Transplantation especially in patients with Myelodysplastic Syndrome.

He served as the president of the Francophone Society of Bone Marrow Transplantation and Cell Therapy (SFGM-TC) between 2012 and 2016. He's the current chair of the Chronic Malignancies Working Party of the EBMT.